

DRILL VOLUNTEERS NEEDED!

County of SLO Office of Emergency Services Emergency Preparedness Exercise

WHAT: The County Office of Emergency Services (OES) is organizing a full-scale preparedness exercise and is looking for volunteers to assist in demonstrating how San Luis Obispo County would respond to an emergency.

WHEN: Wednesday, March 21, 2018

WHO: 50 volunteers needed—

See other details below.

WHY: These exercises are a great opportunity to learn how ready San Luis Obispo County is to handle an emergency.

OTHER DETAILS: Lunch will be provided. This exercise will require moderate physical activity including walking, standing, and sitting with the possibility of working in inclement weather.

Remember, the most important rule of any exercise is safety for the participants and responders.

Before you sign up for this exercise, consider the following:
